LUXEMBOURG AIR RESCUE

30 years

If you can dream it, you can do it!

Im Notfall zählen nur Erfahrung und Kompetenz!

Ce qui compte dans l'urgence médicale, c'est l'expérience et la compétence!
In case of a medical emergency, only experience and know-how matter!

A big thank you to all our members and supporters!

Without you, there would be no LAR!

With over 185 000 members today, Luxembourg Air Rescue is the largest association in Luxembourg. We would like to THANK each and every one of our members. As a private organisation, we are mostly self-financing and rely on membership fees. With your membership, each one of you is showing solidarity and helping to maintain air rescue services in Luxembourg.

A special thank you goes out to those who supported us from the very beginning. You believed in us when we turned our vision of rapid assistance by air into a reality thirty years ago. You did not let yourselves be swayed by the critical voices that were raised at that time. Without you by our side, the establishment of the first air rescue organisation in the Grand Duchy would have been an even longer haul. Thank you, dear companions of those early days!

We would also like to thank all of those who supported us throughout the years with their donations. These contributions help to finance our life-saving mission and allow us to purchase essential medical equipment. Thanks to every one of you, we are rescuing patients in Luxembourg, the Greater Region and all over the world for more than thirty years now. You can be assured that we will remain committed to this work in the future!

30 years of experience

Some people in Luxembourg take rapid aid by air for granted in this country, but unfortunately, it was never an obvious idea! Air rescue services have only existed in the Grand Duchy since the foundation of Luxembourg Air Rescue in 1988, although there are many others now promoting their rescue helicopters and air ambulances.

But be aware: in case of a medical emergency, experience and know-how matter! Just ask these organisations if you can talk to their physicians, their nurses or even their pilots or if you can see their rescue helicopters, air ambulances or at least their road ambulances. You will quickly realize that they do not have any of these resources. Instead, they contract out these external services.

This is not the case with Luxembourg Air Rescue! On the contrary, for 30 years now, we have been focused on our purpose: to save lives with OUR rescue helicopters in Luxembourg and the Greater Region and with OUR ambulance aircraft around the world.

When you call our alert number, OUR staff from the LAR-alert centre will personally take care of you from the very first call. With us, you are not a reference number but a human being.

We care about you!

4 reasons why you should become a LAR Member today

Luxembourg Air Rescue (LAR) is a small humanitarian organization founded in 1988 by a handful of dedicated people. It has given itself the social task of saving people's lives and maintaining their health by using rescue helicopters and ambulance jets. This in Luxembourg, in the Greater Region and worldwide, 365 days a year, and always applying the highest safety and quality standards. Many people in Luxembourg owe their lives to our quick help from the air! The rescue helicopters and ambulance jets perform over 3.000 missions each year.

Our members and patients are our „Raison d'être".

1 We are there for you, when your survival is at stake

Every second counts, when it comes to saving your life or keeping you healthy. As a member of Luxembourg Air Rescue, you are actively supporting a fast and safe air rescue in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. In the event of an emergency, our helicopters can get to the patient within 10 minutes - regardless of where he or she may be in Luxembourg.

2 Worldwide return journey free of charge

As an LAR Member, you can travel at ease, knowing that you are not alone. In the event of a medical emergency abroad, Luxembourg Air Rescue will bring you back home - safely and for free. Regardless of whether this is by ambulance, airline or ambulance jet.

3 Professionals with compassion, understanding and plenty of experience

No emergency is the same! You can rest assured that our experienced and expert personnel are there for you, day and night. We know precisely what needs to be done in a medical emergency abroad in order to help you quickly and efficiently, from the first call, until your safe return: With 30 years of experience, we are by your side, with compassion and understanding.

4 Quality - no "ifs" or "buts"

LAR has one of the most modern air rescue fleets in the world. As an LAR Member you can trust that with us, when it comes to quality and safety, there is no room for compromise. This claim has been independently certified: As the first organisation in the world to operate with air rescue helicopters and ambulance aircraft, Luxembourg Air Rescue has been awarded ISO quality recognition.
